

Texas Wagyu Association presents the 8th Annual “Steaks Are High” Wagyu Sale In Salado, Texas

The 2017 Annual General Meeting of the Texas Wagyu Association & 8th Annual Steaks Are High Wagyu sale is around the corner! Make plans to attend this outstanding annual event, which has become a “not to be missed” Wagyu producer social and networking event in conjunction with the longest-running Wagyu sale in the United States. This is an opportunity to mingle and network with top Wagyu producers from around the United States and particularly from Texas, to receive an update on the past year’s TWA events and activities, participate in electing three new TWA board members as well as participate as a member in the direction of the TWA. This year’s event is shaping up to be the largest and best ever! See the schedule below for the two-day event to be held on Friday, April 21st and Saturday, April 22nd.

Location: Tenroc Ranch Sale Facility, 5471 Thomas Arnold Road, Salado, Texas Friday April 21, 2017

- 10:00 –Show clinic presentation by Dr. Jason Cleere, Texas A&M University. Cleere is the judge of the Wagyu Show at the Houston Livestock Show and is the coordinator of the TAMU Beef Short Course , which draws over 1,400 participants each year.
- 12:00 – Hamburger lunch
- 1:00 –AWA Lipid Study update- Dr. Steve Smith. Smith is a Regents Professor in the Meat Sciences Department at Texas A&M University and a noted expert in the growth and development of antipose tissue, particularly in the bovine species and has lead numerous studies investigating lipids.
- 2:00 – Ultrasound demo with Lynn Allen in the cattle barn + mineral program presentation with Tim Smith of Vigortone in the meeting room
- 3:15 – Meet & greet with George Owen, Executive Director of the AWA.
- 3:30 – Annual General Meeting
- 5:00 – Fun Auction
- 5:30 – Fajita dinner/Cowboy social & Texas Wine Tasting

Saturday April 22, 2017

- 8:00 – Open viewing of animals
- 11:00 – Wagyu brisket lunch
- 12:30 – The 8th Annual Steaks Are High Wagyu sale commences live onsite, with online bidding available at superiorclicktobid.com.